ROBERTS FAMILY

RAY R. KNIGHT, M. D.
3245-PARK AVE.
MINNEAPOLIS 7, MINN

Part of this information was obtained by Ray Roberts Knight in Aug. 1935 from records in the Office of County Register, Jonesboro, Washington County, Tennessee. This area was part of North Carolina in earlier years.

The Roberts and Mitchell families apparently lived in northeastern North Carolina in Colonial times. There were many intermarriages then and later. Some branches moved together into Illinois Territory about 1835, settling in the neighborhood of the present Charleston, Illinois.

The early descent in the Roberts line is not entirely clear. Clues to the parentage of Richard Roberts may lie in the following land grants:

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA - No. 1010

-----in consideration of the sum of fifty shillings for every hundred acres hereby granted paid into our Treasury by Reuben Roberts have given, granted-----a tract of land containing fifty acres---in our "County of Washington on both sides of Dry Run, the waters of Watagale joining the land of John Ashers, beginning at a Spanish Oak---this 27th day of November in the 17th year of the Independence and in the year of Our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety two-----

By His Excellency. Commd.
I. Glasgow, Secretary

(Signed)

Alex Martin

The following Land Patent suggests the possibility that Edmund Roberts may have been the father of Richard Roberts and that he may have settled in Washington County, then a part of the State of North Carolina, nearly twenty years before the birth of the son.

Book I - page 28
State of North Carolina - County of Washington

To all to whom these presents shall come greeting knowledge that for and in consideration of the sum of fifty shillings for every hundred acres hereby granted paid into our treasury by Edmund Roberts have given granted and by these presents due given grant unto the said Edmund Roberts a tract of land containing three hundred acres lying----including the plantation where the said Edmund Roberts now lives as by the plot here unto annexed doth appear together with all woods, waters, mines, minerals, hereditaments and appurtenances to the said land belonging or appertaining to hold to the said Edmund Roberts his heirs and assigns forever yielding and paying to us such sums of money yearly or otherwise as our General assembly from time to time may direct provided always that the said Edmund Roberts shall cause this grant to be registered in the Register's Office of our said County of Washington within twelve months from the date hereof otherwise the same shall be void and of no effect.

In testimony whereof we have caused our great seal to be here unto affixed.
WITNESS: - Alexander Martin, Esquire and Governor, Captain General and Commander and Chief at Fairfield the twenty fourth day of October in the Seventh year of our Independence and in the year of Our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty two by his Excellencies command. I. Glasgow, Sec.

The next several records indicate that the children of Richard Roberts living on Jan. 4, 1808 were -- Rachel Owen, Thomas Owen, Erasmus James, John Wesley, and Harriet. It is probable they were listed in order of birth. The recurrence of the name "Owen" in the first two suggest that this may have been the surname of their mother. Thomas O. in a later document speaks of "my stepmother, Nacky Roberts". The date of death of Richard is not given and no will was filed.

Estate of Richard Roberts

The books of the County Clerk of Washington County show no record of a will made by any Roberts in the late years of the 17 hundreds or in the first 25 or 30 years of the early 18 hundreds. However, there is an inventory of the estate of Richard Roberts dated July 23, 1819 and made by George Henly, Administrator. There are also two subsequent supplementary reports. This would suggest that Richard Roberts died in April or May of 1819.

John Wesley shows as Wesley)

Thos. Owen Roberts was an "Abolitionist". In 1834-35 he sold out his Washington County holdings, freed his slaves ("going bond" for them), and part of the "freedmen" went north into Illinois Territory with the family. Old "Aunt Hannah" was often referred to in the family. The rigors of life in a pioneer country took Thomas and Jane at too early an age. They lie in the Old Indian Presb. Church Cemetery---within the "Old Tom Ferris Farm", two miles east and one-half mile south of Lerna, Illinois (Near Charleston). The stones read--"Thomas O. Roberts - died Aug. 22, 1843 - 43 years, 2 months, 22 days." "Francis A. - son of T. O. and J. Roberts - aged 1 year, 5 months, 24 days." "Jane, wife of Thomas O. Roberts - died Sept. 3, 1845 - aged 46 years, 5 months, 24 days."

Rev. and Mrs. R. M. Roberts, Thomas M. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. W. Knight and their son, Ray Roberts Knight, moved from Hillsborough and Nokomis, Illinois to Minneapolis on June 19, 1885. T. M. Roberts and C. W. Knight had come a few weeks earlier to establish a Hardware Store, which later became the "T. M. Roberts Supply House", one of the earliest Mail Order Catalogue Companies.

MITCHELL FAMILY

A history of the family compiled by Capt. Harry E. Mitchell about 1907 suggests that "the Mitchells came from Craigend, Scotland. They left Scotland in 1637 owing to religious persecution and emigrated to Ireland (Ulster?). About 1682 they emigrated to Pennsylvania." The above is not thoroughly substantiated, but many of the names are in the records in Pennsylvania, some serving in the revolution.

The earliest records in our line in America which seem authenticated, show tax payments in Chester Co., Pa. by Adam Mitchell 1748-1753, and by Robert Mitchell 1748-1763. There appears to have been a sister Jane who married Samuel Doak. In 1753 a colony of families from the Nottingham Presb. Church of West Nottingham, Chester Co., Pa. moved to the North Eastern part of N. Carolina, Guilford Co. They were charter members of Buffalo Presb. Church, 1756. Robert's land grant was in the area of the present Guilford Court House, and Adam had land on No. Buffalo Creek. Of the couple noted below, Adam seems to have been the son of Robert Mitchell and Margaret-----. Jennet, the daughter of Adam Mitchell and Mary-----.

The next paragraph is from the Family Bible of Adam Mitchell, as furnished by Mrs. Rush Meyer, Charleston, Illinois.

Adam Mitchell m. (1) Jennet Mitchell Apr. 3, 1766. She d. Feb. 20, 1767 after the birth of Robt. m. (2) Elizabeth McMahon Oct. 31, 1769.
